GENERAL:

All registered competitors in the 1st International MÜRZ-OPEN agree to the sharing of personal data related to the competition (name, year of birth, club membership and results) with third-party media (print, online, TV, radio). This agreement also includes the publication of competition-related images (award ceremony, team photos) and videos across online platforms.

LEGAL INFORMATION:

For accidents, injuries, or damages to a person or property (regardless of the cause) the organizer and other persons involved in the event assume no liability. Legal guardians and the registering club are informed of the health risks and other dangers and circumstances associated with the competition and confirm by registering that participation in the event is at the competitors' own risk and responsibility, and that no compensational demands of any kind can be made on the organizer or other persons involved in the event. By registering, the competition rules, including any necessary changes that were published by email two business days before the registration deadline, are accepted.

Looking forward to your participation are:
